PASS TARIFF BILL BY 63 TO 28 VOTE

Seven Democrats Line up With Republicans in Support of Measure

PROBE DYE MONOPOLY

Minority Hurls Charge of Dye Monopoly in Closing Debate—Amendments Injected

Washington, May 12.—With the Republican organization demonstrating its power to function effectually, the Emergency Tariff bill, despite its unpopularity, was passed by the Senate today as an Administration measure by a vote of 63 to 28.

Supporting the bill on the final roll call were 56 Republicans and 7 Democrats—Broussard and Ransdell, of Louisiana; Sheppard, of Texas; Jones, of New Mexico; Myers, of Montana; Pittman, of Nevada, and Kendrick, of Wyoming. The opposition consisted of a lone Republican —Moses, of New Hampshire, and 27 Democrats.

Both Senators France and Weller voted on final passage for the bill. Senator France previously had spoken in behalf of the measure. The Maryland Senators also voted with the Administration throughout the afternoon in defeating various amendments proposed by Democratic Senators.

Senators Swanson and Glass, of Virginia, voted against the Tariff bill.

Senator Moses lost his fight against the provision continuing the War Trade Board control of dye imports, the motion to strike it out failing by a vote of 25 ayes to 62 nays. The only Republicans supporting Moses were Smoot, Keyes, Kenyon, Borah and La Follette. Senators King and Hitchcock, Democrats, vigorously assailed the "infamous dye monopoly," which they agreed with Moses would be perpetuated by the provision of the bill. Senator King declared he would offer a resolution for an investigation "of the dye monopoly and the influences back of it which have secured this and other legislation."

The amendment offered by Senator New, of Indiana, to prevent dumping of British airplanes in this country, was rejected by a vote of 10 to 64, after Senator Penrose had informed the Senate that the Finance Committee had rejected the amendment on the ground that it would be indefensible to take such means to promote an airplane industry.

Other amendments rejected included one by Senator Jones, of New Mexico, for a duty of 5 cents a pound and 15 per cent ad valorem on hides, which are now on the free list and are covered by the emergency bill: one by Senator Frelinghuysen, of New Jersey, Republican, to exempt from duty wool purchased abroad prior to April 1, and several amendments offered by Democrats relating to the anti-dumping provisions.

The Sunday School baseball league will hold a meeting at the Chamber of Commerce auditorium tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. The meeting will be the last before the opening of the league season the 17th. The managers and captains and players are all urged to be present as the league will make final arrangements for the tag day to be held Saturday for the benefit of the league.

The St. Paul's Troop of Pioneers, No. 1, held its regular meeting at the St. Paul's Parish Hall last night The meetings at the parish hall are now entirely devotional and social as the educational work is done in the public schools and the physical work at the Young People's Building. The meeting last night was largely attended and the boys made two minute speeches on their "domestic pets."

The Virginia Troop of Pioneers, No. 3, will meet this evening at the Second Baptist Church. Paul Wade is the leader and he has about sixteen youngsters under him.

The movies for boys at the Chamber of Commerce auditorium Friday afternoon at 3.30 will be especially interesting for the parents as well as the children. "A Mouthfull of Wisdom" deals with the care of the teeth and is not only highly entertaining, but most instructive as well. "Concerning Cheese" is another of the interesting daily pictures which never fail to entertain and instruct. The third installment of "The National Review" will close the program, and these reviews have all been of intense interest.

Three Members of Soldier Band in Overturned Auto

TWO OTHERS COLLIDE

All Treated at Hospital—Soldiers Only Slightly Hurt—Washington Men Leave Hospital Today.

Five persons sustained injuries in automobile accidents last night on the Camp Humphreys road. There were two automobile accidents on that road.

The first accident in which three members of the 13th Regiment Engineers' Band were victims happened about 8 o'clock when the machine which they were occupants was over turned. The injured men gave the names of Juan Milian, Manuel Campoll and Raphael Paracin. They were brought to the Alexandria Hospital and treated by Dr. S. B. Moore. Milian was the most seriously hurt of the three. He together with the two other men afterward were taken to the camp hospital for treatment.

The second accident happened about 11 o'clock when two automobiles came together on the same road and two men giving the names of J. R. Staples, 1529 30th street, northwest, and John Bailey, 3415 Q street, northwest, Washington.

WHEELER "CALLS DOWN" ARMSTRONG ON RULING

Washington, May 12.—Attorney General Alexander Armstrong, of Maryland, was severely "called down" today by Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel of the Anti-Saloon League, who says that if Mr. Armstrong "spent as much time trying to find ways to enforce the law as he does throwing monkey wrenches into the law enforcement machinery he would serve his State and country better."

Mr. Wheeler's criticism is a result of the Attorney General's recent opinion that automobiles cannot be searched for liquor without a warrant. Declaring that Mr. Armstrong "is getting into the habit of rendering wrong opinions." Mr. Wheeler has this to say about the last one:

"The opinion of the Attorney General of Maryland that rum running automobiles cannot be searched without a search warrant is just as erroneous as his former opinion that State officers and policemen had no authority to file affidavits and cause the arrest of Federal law violators under the Volstead act.

"The law clearly authorized these arrests under Section 1014, Revised Statutes, and he had to modify the opinion. He will be compelled to do the same thing with reference to his opinion that rum running automobiles have the same protection that private residences have."

WATER IN RIVER VERY HIGH TODAY

Inundates King Street up to Union Street This Morning

NO DAMAGE THUS FAR

Water Reaches Maximum About 11 a. m., and Begins to Recede After That Hour

The water in the river today was unusually high. At King street it went as far as Union street. Other squares along the river front also were inundated by from three to four inches of water

The heavy rains recently and the east winds are ascribed by rivermen as the cause of the high water. The water reached its height about 11 o'clock and from then on began to recede and it is believed it will be near normal about 6 o'clock this evening. However, if the east wind continues it is expected that there will again be high water late tonight.

The merchants along the river front thus far have not experienced any damage from the high water. Practically all merchants along the river front are prepared for just such emergencies and keep their goods on skids a considerable distance above the street level. This is the first time for a long while that the water here has been as high as it was today. The merchants on the river front do not anticipate high water at the present time.

MYSTERIOUS SHOT HITS MAN IN BACK

Pittston, Pa., May 12.—Charles Bardos, 26 years old, of Port Griffith, is in Pittston Hospital with a bullet wound in his back received in a mysterious shooting affray at duPont last night. According to Bardos' story, he was waiting for a train at the Laurel Line station, in dePont, when an automobile containing seven men came along. Without provocation one of the alleged motor bandits fired a shot, wounding Bardos. Then, he says, the occupants of the machine beat him unmercifully and left him lying in the road, evidently thinking he was dead. The victim was found two hours later by two passers-by. He is in a dangerous condition.

The police learned today that an automobile party answering to the description given by the wounded man had passed through duPont several times not long before the shooting occurred. Bardos had $61 on his person which was not taken.

Staunton, Va., May 12.—After installing its new officers, hearing appointments of four officers and three trustees, and receiving reports of committees, the Virginia Grand Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, adjourned its annual session here at 6 o'clock this evening.

Lynchburg was chosen as the place of the 1922 convention.

E. H. Allen of Accotink was appointed grand conductor and Mrs. W. L Martin of Alexandria was named inside guard of the Rebekah Assembly.

"Cousin Everett's" Trial Is Set For May 23

Chicago, May 11.—"Cousin Everett" Harding, repudiated by the President uncorked a sensation in Judge Landis' court yesterday when he announced his claim to the "assistant secretary" to the President post was genuine; followed that up by promising to reveal the names of the "men in authority" who promised him the place, and topped it all off with charges, Secret Service agents burglarized his home and stole "the papers."

His attorneys asked Judge Landis to dismiss the indictment, claiming that there is no such position as "assistant secretary to the President" and that therefore in claiming it Harding could not be accused of impersonating a Government officer. Judge Landis, however, denied the plea, set May 23 as the date for the trial and refused to lower the $5,000 bail.

Pearl Harding, "the White House baby," was in court with her mother.

ALLIES TO TALK ON SECURING DEBT

Conference of Council to be Called by June

PLACE OF MEETING

Belgium or Italy to be Chosen—French Demand Troops be Kept Ready in Case Germany Fails

Paris, May 12.—It is declared here that another conference of the Allied Supreme Council will be called before June 1, at which both the United States and Germany will be represented, for discussion of the methods for securing reparations payments, which Germany promises to meet, and also to dispose of the Upper Silesian problem.

It is believed the conference will be held either in Belgium or in Italy. Premier Giolitti is said to be particularly anxious to have the conference held in Italy, as he will not be able to attend otherwise, and he wishes to meet Premier Briand and Prime Minister Lloyd George again.

American participation in the Supreme Council's deliberations is expected to aid materially in clarifying the many problems that face it.

The French press generally welcomes Dr. Wirth's acceptance of the reparations ultimatum, but demands that the Government keep the 1919 class mobilized until the 1921 class completes its military training, so that immediate action will be possible if Germany fails to execute its promise.

The six divisions which are now massed in the Dusseldorf region will remain there temporarily, but they will be drawn back after Germany pays its first 1,000,000,000 gold marks when Dusseldorf will be evacuated and the French will withdraw to the Rhine, as the Versailles Treaty provides.

London, May 12.—Unreserved acceptance by Germany of the Allied terms, as presented to her in the recent ultimatum of the Supreme Council, was delivered today by German representatives in London, Paris and Rome. The Berlin Government's note practically quotes the Allied demands perfacing each one with the phrase, "The German Government agrees."

The greatest satisfaction greeted the note's arrival here fully 24 hours before the expiration of the time limit on the ultimatum, refusal of which would have been followed immediately by occupation of the Ruhr valley.

The opinion was expressed in official quarters that only the Upper Silesian question, which now has reached a critical point, mars the full effect of Germany's decision. The Poles have precipitated a dangerous situation in the disputed territory, and although the Germans thus far have taken no drastic steps in reprisal, there is nothing to indicate they will not do so if the Poles do not come quickly to their senses.

With German's full acceptance of the Allied terms, disarmament and the trial of war prisoners, Upper Silesia emerges as the biggest problem with which the Allies must wrestle. It is considered imperative that a meeting of the Supreme Council should be held as soon as possible to tackle this issue, but no definite date can be set while Prime Minister Lloyd George is so preoccupied with the present menacing strike situation.

It now appears that Ambassador Harvey's first appearance as the American representative in the deliberations of the Supreme Council will be made when the Upper Silesian issue comes before that body. After visiting Lord Curzon at the Foreign Office today. Colonel Harvey will be received by King George tomorrow to present his credentials.

He thus will take up his official duties within two days of his arrival in England, and many big question are demanding his attention, particularly the Yap issue. It is thought that before the British Government answers the American note in regard to the island it will be the subject of a conversation between Colonel Harvey and Lord Curzon.

Foch's Visit. If it should develop as dispatches from abroad would seem to indicate, that Marshal Foch will come to America in October, as part of the escort of honor for the unknown American soldier to be brought here for interment in Arlington, and to attend the third annual convention of The American Legion at Kansas City, the great military genius of the World War will get such a reception from our people as is seldom extended to visitors from foreign lands, no matter how distinguished.

During the last part of that great struggle which delivered the world from the menace of Prussian domination, out of the welter of grey and khaki and flame gas and steel, the iron-faced Frenchman loomed like a pillar of fire in the great darkness that threatened to make one perpetual night of civilization. The spirit of Foch was everywhere from Dunkirk to Sedan, piercing now here, now there; smashing through in one place, holding fast in another; dashing dauntlessly, smiting furiously, consolidating swiftly, driving the enemy from the soil of France.

For his magnificent leadership of the Allied armies, our own as well as the British, French, Belgian and Italian, for the unbending and inconquerable spirit he helped to infuse in them, for the innumerable kind things he has on numerous occasions said about the American troops and America, for all these things the great French Marshal will be welcome, thrice welcome, to these shores.

And when he comes bringing our dead, fetching home across the seas that dust which is the emblem of all our heroes who have gone west in the great struggle and of their noble sacrifice, he will have done the last, the ultimate thing in binding forever those ties of love and admiration which now draw us to Ferdinand Foch.

The Irrepressible Mr. LaFollette. Senator Robert LaFollette of Wisconsin was for many years the thorn in the side of the stand-pat element of the Republican Party and it now looks like he is again to assume that prickly role,

The doughty solon of progressive, not to say radical, notions from the west, has introduced a resolution in the Senate condemning the participation of this country in the deliberations of the Allied Governments as provided in the recent instructions of our State Department concerning representation in the Supreme Council, the Council of the Embassadors and the Reparations Commission. And he intends to speak to his resolution. Those who remember "Battling Bob" when he gets started look for the fur to fly. Some may land on the White House steps.

Concerning the Fly. Now comes the time of the year when we are all told from press, platform and pinnacles improvised to swat the fly. "Swat the fly" rings out from one end of the land to the other as the heroic battle cry of spring and summer And swish-swash-swat the good housewives get busy or do not get busy as the case may be.

One fly swatted properly to his finish this month, we are told, means so many thousands (about this the authorities do not agree as to the exact number) less of the perennial little pests next month, so many millions less the next month and so on and so on. Just how many flies we would be saved from by one done to death now is a problem in arithmetic which Senator Smoot of Utah is probably at work on.

So the swatting season is on, the fly swatters are getting in action, the screens will soon have to be put up, and millions of the poor little insects yet unborn are being murdered in cold blood.

NEW POLICY TO MEXICO FOLLOWS OLD LINES

Washrington, May 12.—The Administration's policy toward Mexico has been "very well determined," it was stated authoritatively today, but officials are not yet ready to enunciate it.

The announcement that the Administration's Mexican policy was well determined was not indicative of any radical change, it was stated authoritatively, nor should it be construed to forecast early recognition of the Government of Mexico. Recognition of President Obregon will be accorded, it is understood, when he convinces the United States Government that Americans and their interests in Mexico have continuing safeguards.

In a general way, it was indicated, the road to recognition pointed out in a letter former Secretary of State Colby handed to Roberto V. Pesquiera, confidential agent of Provisional President de la Huerta, of Mexico, is still the road to be followed. The letter followed in character the recommendations of the report made by a Senate subcommittee of which Secretary Fall was chairman.

RULE AGAINST CARDS.

Philadelphia, May 12.—Hicksite Quakers, both men and women, today eliminated from the "Book of Rules of Moral Conduct" specific reference to "dancing, card playing and music," against which the sect has fought from time immerial.

The words were supplanted by the term "doubtful diversions," and the degree to which this shall pe interprgted is left to the individaul conscience. This permits the individual to judge for himself to what extent "dancing, card playing or music" come under the head of "doubtful diversions."

SLAYER OF HAMON GETS ESTATE SLICE

Los Angeles, May 12.—A settlement of $10,000 from the $8,000,000 estate of the late Jake L. Hamon has been accepted by his acquitted slayer, Clara Smith Hamon, it was made known here today.

Hamon's widow, it was said, today had agreed to a settlement of $10,000 if this was found agreable to the younger woman.

Miss Hamon indicated that she was in need of funds in view of the heavy cost of her trial. She also needs funds with which to complete the plans for the filming of her life story, she declares, although the majority of the expense is to be borne by her financial backers.

Choose Bread Thoughtfully

Most important of all is the quality of the food we eat. Quality as indicated by purity; and nutrition, as well.

The system requires very definitely proportioned elements; proportions specifically measured by science. Bread being one of the principle items in the daily diet, it should be selected with keen regard for its purity and nutritive elements in their proper proportions.

CORBY BREAD is made in accordance with these scientific principles. The utmost care is followed in the selection of the ingredients used; the patented mixing process employed insures the development of all the gluten content of the flour; and to raise the standard of food-value to its maximum unusual quantities of rich milk are added. Therefore you'll find CORBY BREAD

100 per cent pure; and
100 per cent nutritious

As near the perfectly balanced food ration as is possible to attain.

Public Welfare Bill
Faces Rough Sailing

Washington, May 12.—Indications that the proposal to create a department of public welfare will not have smooth sailing through Congress were furnished yesterday at initial hearings by Senate and House Education committees on the pending Kenyon bill, which embodies the principles of such a department as indorsed by President Harding and as worked out at his direction by Brig.-Gen. C. E Sawyer, his personal physician.

General Sawyer, who appeared to outline the proposal, was subjected to extensive questioning by members of the two committees, who wanted to know if the consolidation of the educational, social and humanitarian bureaus of the Government would not add to the number of Government employes and to governmental expenditures.

The most pronounced opposition, however, came from supporters of the proposal to establish a department of education. Representative Towner, Republican, Iowa, author of the Department of Education bill, argued that the educational forces of the country would not be satisfied with a division of education in a department of public welfare. General Sawyer, on the other hand, declared that many leading educators had indorsed the proposed public welfare bureau, and those that would not fall in line evidently did not have the best interest of education at heart.

Hailstorms Ruin
Crops in the South

Macon, Ga., May 12.—A violent wind and electrical storm, accompanied by rain and hail, yesterday swept over Georgia. Wires were down in all directions and it was impossible last night to estimate the damage.

At Hampton, between Atlanta and Griffin, two inches of hail was reported, and hail fell all the way from Atlanta to Macon on the Central of Georgia Railroad. At Cordele, on the Georgia Southern and Florida, the disturbance was described as a cloudburst in reports reaching here.

On the Southwestern division of the Central of Georgia, which runs through peach belt, all wires were down, but traincrews coming through reported high winds, heavy rain and some hail.

Hail fell in Macon yesterday morning and last night the city was hit by a heavy rain and electrical storm.

At Thomasville yesterday afternoon lightening struck a tree on the golf club course, under which a number of caddies had sought shelter. One negro was killed and several others were badly injured.

Steam Tug Burns at Sea;
Captain and Crew Safe

Jacksonville, Fla., May 12.—The steam tug Victor, en route from Miami, Fla., to New York burned at sea twenty-five miles south of Mantanzas inlet, today, according to word received here.

Captain Charles R. Wiebe and the crew of seven, put off in small boats and had reached St. Augustina, Fla., it was said.

Dreadnaught to Play Two

Saturday, 4 p. m., Baggett's field, upper King street, the Dreadnaughts will meet the Bliss E. S., of Washington, in a game of ball and on Sunday the same field at 3 p. m., the Quincy A. C., come for an engagement.

Both teams are coming with good records, each having been defeated but twice this season, and if they play the quality of baseball expected, the fans have in store for them two first-rate exhibitions of the old game.

FALLS FIVE STORIES IN SLEEP.

New York, May 12.—Stephen Barker, a lawyer, living in Short Hills, N. J., early today walked in his sleep out of a thirteenth story window in his brother's apartment on Fifty-ninth street, and fell eight stories to the roof of an adjacent building.

Physicians said he had a fair chance for recovery, although his skull was fractured and his legs were broken.

ATHLETIC CHIROPRACTOR
BREAKS PATIENT'S BACK

Pittsburgh, May 12.—Strenuous handling by a chiropractor is blamed for the death of Joseph McCann, age 35, whose back was broken during treatment. He died of pneumonia.

Following his treatment by a practitioner whose name is withheld, McCann was received at St. Joseph's Hospital Monday night, where the fourth and fifth vertebrae were found fractured and pneumonia ensued.

The chiropractor responsible for McCann's condition, according to the deputy coroner, has a State license and his methods of treatment are recognized by the authorities.

The case became public when the Bureau of Vital Statistics refused to recognize the death certificate issued by the physician at the hospital.

SLAYER MAY BE SAVED
BY INVENTIVE GENIUS

Uniontown, Pa., May 12.—An electrical device which he invented in 1917 and gave to the United States Navy may be the means of saving the life of John C. Shurilla, of Pittsburgh, who recently was convicted of murder in the first degree for the death of John Sherga, several months ago. Sherga was shot in the back and robbed between Wickhaven and Perryopolis.

That the Navy Consulting Board has become interested in the case became known today when Shurilla received a letter from Rear Admiral W. S. Brothers Smith. The letter, in answer to one written by Shurilla some time ago, says in part:

"We are very sorry to hear you are in serious trouble, but we have taken up your case with the Naval Consulting Board. We will insist you all we can on account of your assistance during the war. You are a true American citizen."

In April, 1917, Shurilla wrote to the president of the Naval Consulting Board offering an electrical device which he claimed would detect submarines and offered its use to the navy. On April 5, 1918, he received a letter, saying his device was a success and had helped the navy check German submarine activities.

Shurilla had been arrested in Pittsburgh as a German spy suspect. Fayette county detectives noted that he answered the description of the slayer of the youth and asked the Pittsburgh authorities to turn him over to them. He was tried and convicted in a short time. No date has been set for his execution.

MME. CURIE GETS FRIGHT AT ROAR OF METROPOLIS

New York, May 12.—Mme. Curie, co-discovery of radium and the world's foremost woman scientist, is a little, timid, grap haired woman, at home in a laboratory groping into atoms and ions, but amazed by the roaring world of New York. She came up from her stateroom today to face the most embarassing situation of her career. She had to meet the newspapermen. She was shy, scared, and weak.

She told in her tired voice what she planned to do with the gram of radium America will give her. It will be devoted to research in cancer disease.

With her were her two daughters, brimming over with fun and life. Eve is 15 years old, studying to be a great pianiste. Irene is 20, and already Mme. Curie's laboratory assistant. They have none of their mother's "gray" personality. Eve and Irene are going to have a lo of fun in America.

SWARTHMORE WOMAN KILLED, CORONER SAYS

Philadelphia, May 12.—Miss Anna C. Garrett, of Swarthmore, whose body was found in Brandywine creek, near Kennett Square, by fishermen about the middle of April, was murdered, according to Coroner Patrick, of Chester county. He says the jury, which will meet tomorrow evening, will bring in that finding.

District Attorney Taylor, of Delaware county, held a conference relative to the case yesterday afternoon with District Attorney Windle, of Chester county, in the latter's office, at West Chester, County Detective O'Toole accompanied Mr. Taylor.

The Delaware county prosecutor would not discuss his visit, except to admit it concerned the Garrett case He said he felt he could not talk in advance of the inquest, it was learned yesterday afternoon. One of the witnesses who, it is rumored, says he has "considerable information," will be Albert M. Garrett, a cousin of Miss Garrett. It is estimated the jurors have formed the opinion death took place elsewhere than in the vicinity of the place where the body was found and that it was carried there and thrown in the creek.

A rumor preceding the inquest is that the body may be exhumed so that a more exhaustive examination can be made to search for marks of violence.

Coroner Patrick said:

"Our investigation shows that Miss Garrett was seen to leave a car on the Media short line at Chester road at 5:30 o'clock on the afternoon of April 1. Two weeks later her dead body was found in a creek 12 miles away in a spot almost inaccessible. We have interviewed every one possible in connection with the case and have succeeded in getting several additional witnesses, who will be called upon to testify at the inquest tomorrow night."

France Wants General Goethals to Reconstruct Devasted Region

Paris, May 12.—France wants General George W. Goethals to come to this country, to make a survey of her devastated regions, and to create a plan for their reconstruction.

Louis Loucheur, Minister of Reconstruction, revealed this fact today, when he met the foreign correspondents to discuss the reparations and reconstruction situation.

General Goethals, Loucheur declared, had been approached through the French ambassador at Washington, and hope is held out that he will accept the task.

"I consider General Goethals the most remarkable engineer in the world," Loucheur said, "The invitation to him was one of my first acts upon assuming office. The letter reached Goethals when he was sick. He replied modestly, that we had plenty of French engineers who were competent but before coming he wanted to know just what he might be called upon to do. I received his reply on the eve of the London conference and have not had time to answer. But I shall write shortly and I hope he will come. His letter expressed the most profound admiration for France, and was very, very gratifying."

Says High Labor Costs Rails' Chief Handicap

Washington, May 12.—Direct examination of Julius Kruttschnitt, chairman of the board of the Southern Pacific, was concluded today by the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee in its investigation of the country's railroad difficulties. He will however, be recalled for cross questioning.

Although emphasizing, as on the first day of his examination, that high labor costs were foremost in the list of handicaps, which, he said, were preventing the roads from making adequate returns on investiment, or even meeting expenses, Mr. Kruttschnitt complained of competition, favored by government subsidy, which the transcontinental lines particularly were meeting.

MINISTER TELLS ABOUT TROUBLES

Member of Baltimore Conference Had Suffered For Ten Years—Is Restored by Tanlac

Rev. W. C. Richardson, of 234 Riverside Avenue, Covington, a well-known Methodist minister, is now an ardent champion of the merits of Tanlac. Rev. Mr. Richardson has been active in church and Sunday school work all his life, and is a member of the Baltimore Conference. His statement follows:

"I took Tanlac a year ago," said Mr. Richardson, "and it restored my health so well that I have felt just fine ever since. I also gained twenty pounds in weight and a medicine that will do such things for suffering, run down people certainly deserves the highest praise.

"For ten years my digestion was so bad that nearly everything I ate turned against me. I would bloat up something awful and have pains in my stomach that were almost unbearable. At night I was in so much pain and suffering I hardly knew what sleep was. I fell off in weight and my nerves gave way and I was simply on the verge of a collapse.

"I had heard a lot about Tanlac and asked a friend of mine who is a druggist what he thought of it. He recommended it in the highest terms, and right then I started taking it and before I finished my first bottle I could tell I had the right thing. Well, I took four bottles and they restored my health completely and to this good day I have felt well in every respect. Tanlac certainly is a great medicine and I can't help but think of other people who may be suffering like I was, and I take pleasure in giving this statement for what it may be worth to them."

Mary Garden Would Make U. S. Music-Loving Country

Chicago, May 12.—Mary Garden confessed last night that it is her ambition to make the Metropolitan Opera Company of New York sorry for what it did to Oscar Hammerstein.

Miss Garden was speaking before the convention of the music industries chamber of commerce.

"I am going to have backing and I am going to take opera to every city of size in this country.

"Music has grown in the past ten years in this country at an unbelievable rate. In every city there are thousands of devotees of the best in music.

"What I am looking forward to now is a great American opera, the difficulty in getting it is to find the proper libretto. The music will be forthcoming fast enough. But we need the libretto and, above all things, we must let the Indian alone in his libretto It has got to be something else"

No More Awards for War Service to Civilians

Washington, May 12.—Secretary of War Weeks today was on record as opposing any further awards of either the distinguished service medal or distinguished service cross to civilians for war service. In presenting the D. S. M., to a group of officers yesterday Weeks said:

"Personally, I am not in favor of giving either a distinguished service cross or distinguished service medal to those who are not a part of the army."

THREE SHOOT POLITICIAN; LEAVE $20 FOR FLOWERS

Chicago, May 12.—An old felt hat and a sawed off shot gun were the only traces discovered by police of the three men who early today shot, probably fatally, Anthony d'Andrea, Nineteenth ward political leader. Tucked in the band of the hat was a $20 bill with a slip of paper marked "For Flowers."

Neighbors who heard the shots say they were fired by men hiding in a vacant apartment beneath d'Andrea's. The Nineteenth ward has been the scene of many recent shootings and bombings, attributed by the police to a political feud.

WOMEN POSE AS NURSES; PATIENT'S DEATH FEARED

Tulsa, Okla., May 12.—John Devereau, former justice of the State Supreme Court, was found early yesterday in a downtown rooming house. He had been taken there by two women who posed as nurses. When found he was unconscious and there was a deep gash on his head. Physicians doubt that he will recover, He may not even regain consciousness.

The police today and last night questioned the two women. They are known as "Mrs. James" and "Goldie Gordon." They are being held pending the results of the former judge's injury.

The women also are held to explain checks which, it is declared, they say were fees for nursing. These checks total $1,000. The police say "Mrs. James" got $800 and the other women $200. There are rumors that while the former judge, who is 70, was ill, Liberty Bonds worth $15,000 vanished from a safety deposit box. There also is said to be a $10,000 promissory note missing.

SIX CENTS HEART BALM AWARDED N. J. WOMAN, 68

Philadelphia, May 12.—A Bridgeton, New Jersey jury awarded Mrs. Rebecca McConnell, 68, of Millville, 6 cents damages yesterday in her $1,500 heart balm suit for the loss of her husband's affections. During the trial the husband, Adam McConnell, 70, also of Millville, declared he would rather be shot and bayonetted a hundred times than go back with his first wife.

McConnell married a second time 18 years ago. He testified he believed his first wife had obtained a divorce. The second wife was then 16. McConnell had 10 children, four by the first marriage and six by the second. McConnell paid his first wife $5 alimony a week for seven years and it was testified the checks for this amount were signed by the second wife.

The first wife brought the suit against the second wife. When the verdict was announced the first wife collapsed.

SAVES HIS PATIENT BUT LOSES OWN LIFE

Philadelphia, Pa., May 12.—"This is the last of me," said Dr. Pierre N. Bergeron more than two weeks ago when in the midst of an operation on a patient, who had pleuro pneumonia, he pricked his own finger with a needle. He continued successfully with the operation.

This morning Dr. Bergeron died at St. Joseph's hospital as the result of the ensuing infection. For five days before his death he suffered greatly,

His patient. Thomas Boyd, an employe of the Metropolitan Opera house, has progressed so favorably since the operation that today he was able to sit up and receive visitors. He was not told of Dr. Bergeron's death, for he had worried concerning the surgeon, since he learned of the latter's illness.

Dr. Bergeron, who was 51 years old, a year younger than his patient, lived at 1908 West Girard Avenue, with his wife, Mrs. Margaret E. Bergeron. He came to Philadelphia in the early nineties to attend Jefferson Medical college from which he was graduated in 1898. Since that time he practiced surgery and was on the staff of St. Joseph's and St. Mary's hospitals. He was born near Quebec and passed his early life there.

MASONS VISIT TOMB

Washington, D. C., May 12.—Because they understand that the President of the United States cannot visit the tomb of Washington at Mt. Vernon without first paying an entrance fee to the grounds, high officials of the National League of Masonic Clubs, in convention here, may ask Congress to purchase the Mount Vernon estate.

The idea, which has been given solemn attention by men studying all phases of the subject, came into existence yesterday after 5,000 delegates to the convention and their ladies were forced to pay 25 cents each before gaining admittance to the grounds at Mount Vernon.

It is understood that a resolution will be offered on the floor of the convention today by a member of the general entertainment committee. This resolution would be directed to the attention of Congress, setting forth the prevailing custom and asking that the tomb of Washington be taken over by the national government. The estate is now owned by the Ladies' Mount Vernon Association of the Union.

Among the Master Masons visiting the convention there was great surprise when they were told that a fee would be demanded at the entrance of the first President's old home. While making plans for the convention, it is said that members of the local entertainment committee visited the superintendent of Mount Vernon and asked that the entrance fee be waived for the day on which the Masons visted the tomb

Members of the general entertainment committee, it is said, were directed to take the question up with the regent of the Ladies' Mount Vernon association. Evidently nothing came of the attempt, as the Masons yesterday were forced to follow the custom established some time after the civil war when each person visiting Mount Vernon was required to pay an entrance fee.

M'NAMARA TO SPEAK TONIGHT

San Francisco, May 12.—John J. McNamara, released yesterday from San Quentin prison after serving 9 years and 5 months for dynamiting the Llewellyn Iron Works in Los Angeles in 1910, evaded all interviewers on arrival in San Francisco As far as could be learned, he was staying with friends. Officials of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, of which McNamara formerly was secretary, whisked him away in an automobile.

McNamara is scheduled to speak tomorrow night at a meeting of the local structural iron workers' union He left behind him at San Quentin his brother, James B., who is serving a life sentence for murder in connection with the blowing up of the Los Angeles Times Building.

French Tank Routs Polish Insurgents With Blank Loads

Kattowitz, Silesia, May 12.—A French tank stationed in the Kattowitz market square today dispersed a Polish insurgent advance guard with one round of machine guns loaded with blanks. The Poles came down the main street in column of squads, flying their flags and led by officers on prancing horses. As they reached the edge of the square the tank wheeled broadside and turned loose two machine guns directly in the face of the invaders.

The column broke, the horses turned and dashed away: the insurgents threw down their rifles and ran.

SHIPYARD WORKER SAYS CHSCO-VIM IS A GREAT MEDICINE

"I rest again all night through and my appetite is good too since taking Chasco-Vin. It is surely a great medicine. For a long time I was all rundown and one cold followed another until I was discouraged. I certainly feel grateful to both Chasco-Vin and those who insist that I give it a trial. If you have gone through what I did get a bottle and try it." Edward F. Moore, 811 Cherry Street., Camden, N. J.
